16. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (in thousands of $)

Fair values

The fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged or settled between knowledgeable and willing parties in an arm's length transaction, other than in a forced or liquidation sale.

Fair value hierarchy

The Group categorises fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that is dependent on the valuation inputs used as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Financial instruments carried at fair value

Fair value measurements that use inputs of different hierarchy levels are categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

The following table shows an analysis of each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value at the end of the reporting period:

Level 2 fair value measurements

The Group and Company have carried all derivative instruments at their fair values.

The fair value of forward currency contracts is determined by reference to current forward exchange rates for contracts with similar maturity profiles.

Financial instruments whose carrying amounts are reasonable approximation of fair value

The carrying amounts of the following financial assets and financial liabilities are reasonable approximations of their fair values due to their short-term nature: cash and bank balances, short-term deposits, amounts owing by/to related parties, amounts owing by immediate holding company, bank loans, trade and other receivables and payables.

The carrying amounts of the loans to subsidiary companies are reasonable approximations of fair value as the loans are floating rate loans that are re-priced to market interest rate quarterly.

GROUP EARNINGS

First Half FY2025-26

With robust demand for maintenance, repair and overhaul services ("MRO") in the first half of the financial year ended 30 September 2025, Group revenue grew 26.5% to $729.0 million. Group expenditure also increased but at a lower rate of 25.0% to $716.0 million, mainly attributed to higher material costs, manpower costs, repair costs and IT system implementation costs, as well as a $4.0 million impairment provision for an underperforming contract. Consequently, the Group's operating performance improved by $9.6 million year-on-year to an operating profit of $13.0 million.

Share of profits of associated and joint venture companies also increased by $12.7 million (+21.7%) year-on-year to $71.3 million. The breakdown of contribution by segments is as follows:

- $68.6 million (+$12.4 million) from the engine and component segment, and
- $2.7 million (+$0.3 million) from the airframe and line maintenance segment.

The Group's net profit for the first half ended 30 September 2025 was $83.3 million, an improvement of $14.5 million year-on-year.

Basic earnings per share for the first half of the financial year ended 30 September 2025 was 7.45 cents.

GROUP FINANCIAL POSITION

As of 30 September 2025, equity attributable to owners of the parent was $1,694.6 million. This was $25.8 million (-1.5%) lower than the position as of 31 March 2025, mainly due to the payment of final dividend for the last financial year and a decrease in the foreign currency translation reserve, partially offset by profits earned during the period.

Total assets, which included a cash balance of $575.2 million, stood at $2,103.1 million as of 30 September 2025. The decrease of $38.3 million (-1.8%) from the position as of 31 March 2025 was mainly due to lower cash balances, partially offset by an increase in receivables.

Net asset value per share as at 30 September 2025 was 151.4 cents.

4. Where a forecast, or a prospect statement, has been previously disclosed to shareholders, any variance between it and the actual results.

No forecast was previously provided.

G. OTHER INFORMATION REQUIRED BY LISTING RULE APPENDIX 7.2 (continued)

5. A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the group in the next reporting period and the next 12 months.

BUSINESS UPDATE

The Group continued to see healthy demand for Maintenance Repair and Overhaul ("MRO") services in the half-year ended 30 September 2025. Line Maintenance in Singapore handled 2.6% more flights compared to the same period last year, with the uptick in demand also seen across our line maintenance network. Base Maintenance also benefitted from an increase in heavy maintenance checks.

New Comprehensive Services Agreements with Singapore Airlines and Scoot to provide a broad spectrum of MRO services took effect from 1 April 2025, valued at an estimated $1.3 billion for a term of two years, with an option to extend by an additional year.

TIA Engineering Services Company Ltd, our joint venture with Cambodia Airport Investment Co., Ltd, commenced operations at the new Techo International Airport ("KTI") in Phnom Penh on 9 September 2025, providing line maintenance support to airlines operating into KTI.

Component and engine MRO output continued to increase, supported by improved operational efficiencies, new capability and additional work shifts at certain shops. During the period, Asia Pacific Aircraft Component Services in Malaysia added Honeywell's Air Data Inertial Reference Unit to its component repair capabilities.

Meanwhile, the Group's Enterprise Operating System was deployed to additional business units and digital solutions were further integrated into operations to boost productivity and efficiency.

SIA Engineering Company was recognised as one of the top 50 ASEAN Public Listed Companies under the 2024 ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard Regional Assessment, led by the ASEAN Capital Markets Forum. This accolade reflects our continued commitment to high standards of corporate governance, transparency and accountability, and long-term value creation.

OUTLOOK

Travel demand and passenger traffic growth continue to underpin MRO demand. While the operating environment is still subject to risks from heightened geopolitical and trade tensions, as well as persistent supply chain issues, the Group remains vigilant to the headwinds and continues to closely manage these risks and position for long-term growth. Our strategic priorities continue to be focused on expanding our presence in Asia-Pacific, expanding capacity and MRO capabilities for next-generation aircraft, and enhancing our core services to build operational resilience, agility and competitiveness, to deliver greater value to our customers and stakeholders.
